

Response to Legal Inquiries

On occasion, school employees may be contacted directly by attorneys or the staff of an attorney. Questions may be asked regarding the school, other school staff, parents, community members or students. School employees should not respond to such inquiries without first seeking authorization from the Office of Education. When served with a subpoena regarding school-related incidents or information, school employees shall immediately contact the Office of Education for assistance with the response.